TO: FCC Task Force on Broadcast Localism SUBJECT: RM-10803

I am writing to let you know that I oppose the renewal of the license of Clear Channel networks in North Carolina, specifically the Raleigh/Durham area and station G105 (WDGC).

On September 22 and 23, their shock jocks, Bob and Madison, dedicated a segment of their program on both days to advocating violence against cyclists. One host suggested pelting cyclists with empty Yoo-Hoo bottles, which he purportedly carries in his car for just such opportunities. These 'personalities' were using the airwaves to instruct the motoring public to commit a Class E felony by violating North Carolina General Statute 14-32, Assault with a Deadly Weapon Inflicting Serious Injury. A car can be considered a deadly weapon in a situation where person/motorist has intentionally struck a cyclist, as suggested on the Bob and Madison Morning Show.

While it may seem that these broadcasts would be protected by free speech, a right we all hold dear, the fact that hese 'personalities' are inciting the public to commit felonious assault and the 'likelihood of its success' make these actions clearly UNPROTECTED by the right of free speech and potentially actionable. The fact that within days of the broadcasts numerous cyclists in the area reported aggressive behavior by motorists towards them lends credence to the fact that these inciting remarks were, in fact, quite successful. Clear Channel should be held responsible for the actions of its employees.

This is not the first time Clear Channel has used these tactics - they have run similar anti-cyclist broadcasts in Cleveland and Houston. Clear Channel obviously knows what they're doing is wrong or they would not have made amends in Cleveland as they did.

Radio stations all around the country are charged with operating for the public good. Clear Channel has definitely not met that charge. Their advocacy of violence and criminal behavior should not be condoned, and should not be allowed on the public airwaves.

Thank you.
